THE DIRECTOR OF RACQUETS (DOR) OPPORTUNITY AT BALTIMORE COUNTRY CLUB

If you have superior customer services skills, are a promoter with an entrepreneurial spirit, this is your career opportunity.

The organizational purpose of Baltimore Country Club (BCC) is to provide exceptional services, staff, and facilities for our members, achieve budgeted goals, and provide respect and dignity to all. BCC maintains magnificent clubhouse facilities on each of its campuses for its 3,200 plus members and its sports facilities include two 18-hole golf courses both located at the Five Farms campus. Also at the Five Farms campus are: 10 Hydro grid har-tru tennis courts, 3 swimming pools, a group exercise room and fitness center, and a 45,000-sq. clubhouse with multiple dining, living room and meeting spaces. At the Roland Park location are 3 squash courts, 2 paddle tennis courts, 6 duckpin bowling alleys, a fitness center and in the 60,000-sq. ft. building is a beautiful ballroom and other intimate dining and meeting spaces.

Both campuses offer a full range of food and beverage facilities with Roland Park typically hosting more 'functions' and ala carte in fall/winter months and Five Farms being busy during the 8 months of golf season.

The Club is in strong financial condition, serves an affluent, multi-generational membership in a gracious environment with a membership that appreciates the hugely family-oriented culture of the Club, and its professional staff. The Membership considers the Club an extension of their home where they can relax, enjoy the ambiance and amenities of the Club and connect with their families and friends.

BALTIMORE COUNTRY CLUB AND COMMUNITY

Baltimore Country Club was founded on January 13, 1898 at its Roland Park location and is one of only twelve clubs nationwide to operate on two campuses. In 1926, the second location called Five Farms was opened with a masterpiece East Course, designed by A.W. Tillinghast. The club is listed by the USGA as one of the first 100 clubs established in the U.S. and is regularly listed in the top 50 in the nation and top 100 in the World. In 2013, LINKS Magazine named BCC as one of the "100 Most Prestigious Clubs in the World" and it continually honors that tradition.

BCC has a rich history of hosting major events. Their tradition of tennis dates back to hosting the Davis Cup and for golf, BCC had the privilege of hosting the 5th U.S. Open Championship at Roland Park and it is one of only two clubs in the world to have hosted a Men's U.S. Open, a PGA Championship, a Men's U.S. Amateur, a U.S. Walker Cup, a Women's U.S. Open and a Champions Tour Major! Over the years, the Club has hosted several other championships including the 1965 Walker Cup, the 1988 U.S. Women's Open and three Senior Players Championships from 2007 – 2009 and the Big Ten Men's Golf Championship in 2017 and 2018. Baltimore Country Club, with its history of nearly 120 years, is a well-established Club with valued traditions. The Club's traditions are an integral part of its history and culture, but the Club recognizes it must continue to remain relevant for its membership.

The members and staff of Baltimore Country Club will readily share with you their view of Maryland, Baltimore County and Baltimore City as being "a great state and family town!" A strong point of pride is the multi-generational nature of the members and staff, which is unique to just a few major cities in the U.S.

With its strong mid-Atlantic location and easy access to D.C. and most of the major cities in the northeast as well as the eastern shore, the state and Baltimore have a great history and a thriving economy. The Club's two campuses are in different municipalities, and very highly prized neighborhoods that continue to be sought after by younger families, which have contributed to the Club's average age decreasing from 60 to 49 in the last 10 years.

Schools, cultural events and activities, and overall quality of life is such that many residents prefer to stay in the area, and many of the Club's children have returned after college. The Baltimore County Chamber of Commerce states "Baltimore County is a great place to live, work and play!" To learn more about Maryland go to "Visit Maryland" at www.visitmaryland.org
